

COURT-FEES ACT (1870) Section 7 – Computation of fees payable in certain suits The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows: (i) In suits for money (including damages, compensation, arrears of maintenance, annuities or other sums payable periodically) – according to the amount claimed; (ii) In suits for maintenance or annuities – ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year; (iii) In suits regarding movable property having market value – according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint; (iv) In suits regarding movable property of no market value (e.g., documents relating to title) – fee as prescribed under this section.